"I'm better off dead."

Do you know someone at risk for suicide?
Warning signs include depression and other expressions of intense feelings.

- If a friend or loved one is threatening, talking about or making plans for suicide, these are signs of an acute crisis.
- Do not leave the person alone.
- Remove any firearms, drugs or sharp objects that could be used for suicide.
- Take the person to an emergency room or counseling center.

STOP suicide
